

Preservation Month Events in Indiana

April 26

New Albany & Jeffersonville: Historic Buildings and Memories: Photos Displayed Downtown in New Albany and Jeffersonville. Two downtown stores - Destinations Booksellers, New Albany, and The Office Supply Company, Jeffersonville, will provide store space to display photographs that include historic buildings in the two counties. Drop off photos between Wednesday, April 26, and Wednesday, May 3, as follows: If you live in Floyd County, take your photographs to Digital Resource Center (ask for Pete Lyons), 302 Pearl Street, New Albany. If you live in Clark County, take your photos to The Office Supply Company, 417 Spring Street, Jeffersonville. Store employees will copy the photograph, you will provide your historic photo story (simple instructions at the store), take your original photo with you, and leave the copy for display. The New Albany site will deliver the photos to Destinations Booksellers. All the photographs together tell a little story of Floyd and Clark counties' historic buildings. Interested photo and historic enthusiasts may learn more details about this project in upcoming announcements in The New Albany Tribune and The Jeffersonville Evening News or by calling Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana – 812/284-4534.

May 1

Indianapolis: Researching Your Historic Home 5:30pm-8:00pm at Spades Park Library. Indianapolis historic preservationist/researcher Joan Hostetler will guide participants through the steps to research their historic home. Participants are encouraged to bring abstracts, photographs and other forms of documentation to weave together their home's architectural and cultural history. Sponsored by Indianapolis-Marion County Public Library, Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana, and NESCO's History and Preservation Committee. Free

May 3

Fort Wayne: Downtown Walking tour: Join ARCH on a Downtown Walking tour of architecture and history. Meet at 10am at the Barr Street Market (corner Barr and Wayne). The tour includes inside visits of the historic Lincoln Tower and Allen County Courthouse, as well as the historic Landing District, Canal House and the Arts United Center. Cost is $5 adults, $2 for children under 18. Reservations not necessary, but welcome. Parking available for 50 cents at parking meters. Call 260-426-5117 for reservations or more information.

May 3

Indianapolis: "Preservation Roadshow" Come visit the staff of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology (DHPA) at the historic City Market (200 block of East Market St.). The Farmers' Market takes place every Wednesday (May-October) from 10am-1:30pm. Stop by the DHPA booth, ask questions, and learn about historic preservation. Free

May 3

New Albany: Preservation Conversation: What's Next for New Albany's Older and Historic Neighborhoods. Ted Fulmore, S. Ellen Jones Neighborhood Association, and Greg Roberts, East Spring Street Association, and Greg Sekula, Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana, will discuss preservation efforts past and present in the New Albany area. 7:00 - 8:30pm at Destinations Booksellers, 604 E. Spring Street, New

Albany. Contact Randy Smith at 812/ 944-5116. Free

May 4

Indianapolis: The DHPA is hosting a tour of the recently renovated Blacherne Apartment building (402 N. Meridian St.). Stop by between 1:00-2:00 to see what some of the apartments look like now. Call Amy Walker at 317/232-1646 for more information. Free

May 4

Indianapolis: Indiana's Kit & Catalog Houses (6:30pm) at College Ave Library. A presentation by Paul Diebold, Senior Architectural Historian, Indiana Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology, will walk you through a century of house designs, using examples from all around Indiana. You will see how catalogs and books influenced a homeowner's choice in floor plans, building materials and exterior style. Indianapolis and our surrounding communities have several examples of kit houses. Provided by such companies as Sears, the kit houses were delivered with pre-cut materials and full architectural plans. Here is an opportunity to identify the style of your home. Could your house be a kit or catalog house? Bring pictures of your house and find out! Sponsored by IMCPL, HLF, and the Indiana DNR Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology. Free

May 5

Fort Wayne: Downtown Walking Tour: Join ARCH on a Downtown Walking Tour of Architecture, art and history. Meet at 1pm at the Visitors Center, located on Calhoun Street across from the Hilton. This tour includes interior visits to the historic Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Baker Street Train Station, and an insider's tour of the Embassy Theatre, as well as the sculpture garden at Lincoln Financial Group, the Federal Building, and Powers Hamburgers. Cost is $5 adults, $2 for children under 18. Reservations not necessary, but welcome. Parking available in the parking garage at Jefferson and Calhoun street, adjoining the Visitors Center. Call 260-426-5117 for reservations or more information.

May 5

Fort Wayne: Historic Swinney Homestead Spring Open House, Tea & Music & Herb Sale. The historic Swinney home (1424 W. Jefferson Blvd) and the log house will be open for tours on Friday only. Tea will be served on Friday from 10-3 p.m. On Friday, the Settlers' Hearthstone Ensemble will perform music of early Americana and members of the Flax and Fleecers Spinning Guild will demonstrate fiber arts. Don't miss the display of upcoming historic hand art programs, the Settlers' Gift Shoppe, a bake sale, and the ANNUAL HERB AND PERENNIAL SALE IN THE BACK YARD AND BASEMENT (plant sale both days)!

May 5

Indianapolis: Painting the Town Victorian: Selecting Exterior Colors for American Buildings, 1840-1920. (7:00pm-9:00pm at Glendale Library) A free lecture will be presented by Dr. Roger Moss at the Glendale Branch of the Indianapolis/Marion County Public Library on 5 May from 7:00 to 9:00pm. Dr. Moss has been Executive Director of The Athenaeum of Philadelphia since 1968 and has served as an adjunct professor of Architecture in the Historic Preservation Program of the School of Design at the University of Pennsylvania for over 25 years. He is a nationally acclaimed expert on nineteenth-century American exterior decoration. American Country House, Victorian

Interior and Exterior Decoration, and Historic Houses of Philadelphia are just a few titles among the dozen books on architecture and design that Dr. Moss has authored. Sponsored by HLF, IMCPL, and by Indiana University's Cornelius O'Brien Lecture Series on Historic Preservation. Free

May 5

Lafayette: The Tippecanoe County Historical Association and the Wabash Valley Trust for Historic Preservation are sponsoring A Toast to Preservation between 6:00pm-10:00pm. Stop by the Lafayette Theatre during the Gallery Walk and join us in honoring Tippecanoe County's most dedicated preservationists. The awards will begin at 6:30 followed by a jazz performance and light refreshments. Contact Amy Fehrenbacher at 765/ 420-0268 or Alice Carver-Kubik at 765/ 476-8411, ext. 208 for more information. Free

May 5

Rising Sun: "Ohio County in Ink: Buildings of Ohio County." This exhibit of pen and ink drawings of buildings both past and present will open on May 5 at 7:00pm and will run through September 5. Join Rising Sun resident and attorney, Lane Siekman at the opening. Lane has created over 20 drawings including images of the Presbyterian Seminary, the Ohio County Courthouse, Empire House, and Cass-Union School. Contact the Ohio County Historical Society and Museum at 812/ 438-4915.

May 6

Bloomington:

The Hinkle-Garton Farmstead Museum and Historic Site will be open regularly for the first time on Saturdays from 1-4 p.m. beginning in May. During Preservation Month a silent auction will be held, as well as special exhibits and activities. The site is located at 2920 E. 10th Street, just east of the Hwy. 46 bypass and 10th Street intersection. For more information about this 1892 farmstead, visit www.bloomingtonrestorations.org or contact Danielle Bachant-Bell, Programs Assistant, at programs@bloomingtonrestorations.org or (812) 336-0909.

May 6

Evansville: Burdette Park WPA History Hike. 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. The ruins and remnants of trails, bridges, and cottages built by the Works Progress Administration (WPA) in the 1930s tell a fascinating story. Wear your hiking boots and bring a walking stick. Tour leaves from Park Shelter #13, adjacent to the basketball courts. The park is at 5301 Nurrenbern Road. Tour sponsored by the Vanderburgh County Historical Society. Refreshments available courtesy of the society. Guides: William Murphy and Dennis M. Au. Free

May 6

Fort Wayne: South Side Farmers Market, 3300 Warsaw Street, Fort Wayne. The market is open for the season. Visit this c. 1926 Farmers Market, listed as a Fort Wayne Local Historic District, and enjoy wood-stoves, old fashioned charm, and early season produce, annual flowers, perennials and more. Collectibles and flea market finds in the south wing. Open from 7am to 1pm. Directions: Lafayette Street to Oxford, turn right (east) one block to Warsaw (traffic light), then left (north) one block to the market.

May 6

Fort Wayne: Historic Swinney Homestead Spring Open House, Tea & Music & Herb Sale. The historic Swinney home (1424 W. Jefferson Blvd) and the log house will be open for tours on Friday only. The herb sale will be from 8am-12pm on Saturday. Don't miss the display of upcoming historic hand art programs, the Settlers' Gift Shoppe, a bake sale, and the ANNUAL HERB AND PERENNIAL SALE IN THE BACK YARD AND BASEMENT (plant sale both days)!

May 6

Indianapolis: Exterior Paint Workshop for Historic Buildings (9:30am-12:30pm at the Old Centrum, 1201 N. Central Ave). Ron Zmyslo will host a Paint Workshop at the Old Centrum from 9:30am to 12:30pm. Ron will show participants the 'do's and don'ts' of removing and applying exterior paint. Dr. Moss will join us on Saturday to offer consultations with participants. A nominal registration fee will be charged to cover materials for the Saturday event. $5.00 for HLF members; $10.00 non-HLF members. Sponsored by Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana

May 6

Lafayette: The Tippecanoe County Historical Association and the Wabash Valley Trust for Historic Preservation are sponsoring a Progressive Garden Party and Historic Home Tour between 1:00pm-4:00pm. Spend a delightful afternoon visiting some of Lafayette's most remarkable and historic homes and neighborhoods. Learn the stories of the homes and the people who lived in them and enjoy the beauty and elegance of some lovely spring gardens. You may purchase tickets at the Graves House, the Genealogy and Research Center, and the Tippecanoe Arts Federation. Contact Amy Fehrenbacher at 765/ 420-0268 or Alice Carver-Kubik at 765/ 476-8411, ext. 208 for more information. Cost is $20 for TCHA and WVTHP members/$25 for non-members.

May 6

Newburgh: Historic Newburgh will be sponsoring free walking tours of the Newburgh Historic District followed by a reception at the Old Town Hall. Tours begin at Historic Newburgh Inc (9 W. Jennings) Contact Nancy Lybarger at 812/ 853-2815 for more information. Free

May 6

Plainfield: Open House at Sugar Grove: To celebrate National Historic Preservation Month, the Plainfield-Guilford Township Public Library and Western Yearly Meeting of Friends Church [an ecclesiastical organization of the Religious Society of Friends Church (Quakers) in Western Indiana and eastern Illinois] will sponsor a tour of historic Sugar Grove Meetinghouse. On Saturday, May 6 from 1 to 5 p.m. you are welcome to step inside and see how this 19th-century building, home of one of Plainfield's earliest denominations, has been preserved. Wander the picturesque cemetery, and at 1:30 or 3:30, take a seat in the old pews and hear local historian Sarah Hadley Allen discuss Sugar Grove's history. Registration is NOT required for this FREE program and tour; contact the library at 317-839-6602, ext. 115 for maps and/or directions.

May 7

Evansville: Oak Hill Cemetery Tour departs from the veteran's memorial to the right of the main entrance. This year's walk features the 19th century section of the cemetery. The tour highlights the fascinating stories of the pioneers of Evansville buried here as well as the artwork of the monuments. The history of Evansville literally "comes alive."

Guide: Dennis M. Au. Free

May 7

Evansville: Reitz Home Free Admission Day. Evansville's most noted Victorian jewel, the Reitz Home, will waive the usual admission charge on this day in observance of Historic Preservation Week. Hours are 1:00pm-3:30pm. The Reitz Home is located at 224 S.E. First St. Take advantage of this once a year free admission. Free

May 7

Madison: Join the Cornerstone Society and Madison Main Street for a joint meeting at 2:30pm in the auditorium of the Madison-Jefferson County Public Library (420 W. Main St.). Madison resident Donn Campbell will talk about three downtown buildings she and her husband are restoring; she will illustrate her talk with before, during, and after photographs. Refreshments will follow the presentation. Call Meredith Gregg at 812/265-4197 for more information. Free

May 7

Newburgh: Historic Newburgh Inc will be hosting a series of seminars focusing on restoration/preservation, followed by the Preservation Awards dinner at 6:00pm. The festivities will take place at La Veranda on Water Street and dinner will be by The Edgewater Grill. Cost is $20 per person and reservations for dinner are required by May 1. Contact Nancy Lybarger at 812/ 853-2815 for reservations. Ray Mulesky, a local author, will be the dinner speaker and the awards presentation will follow.

May 8

Evansville: Washington Terrace-South Alvord Boulevard Tour. Walking tour of this historic early 20th century development begins at 761 Alvord Boulevard. When this was platted in 1909, Washington Terrace was on the far-east side of Evansville. This beautiful boulevard features quaint Bungalows, Colonial Revivals, and English Cottages. Guide: Dennis M. Au. Free

May 9

Evansville: Culver Historic District Tour. This quaint late 19th and early 20th century neighborhood is one of Evansville's hidden gems. Tour begins at the Rathbone Home at 1320 S.E. Second St. Celebrating its centennial year, we will start the walk with a brief tour of this facility. Refreshment courtesy of the Rathbone Home will be available. Architecture here ranges from picturesque Victorian Queen Annes to 20th century Bungalows. Guide: Dennis M. Au. Free

May 9

New Albany: Progressive Pizza and Preservation: Unlock the History of Your Historic Home. First workshop in New Albany's May series of preservation workshops. Sponsored by the East Spring Street Neighborhood Association, the workshop is designed for homeowners of historic property and anyone interested in history of property in their communities or neighborhoods. Presenters: Dave Barksdale, Floyd County Historian; Linda Berger, Floyd County Recorder; Betty Menges, Asst. Manager, Indiana History Room and Lynn Rueff, Manager, Indiana History Room, New Albany Public Library. 6:15pm-8:30pm. Evening will begin at the Carnegie Center for Art and History, 201 East Spring St, New Albany, for pizza and introduction to researching, dating, and identifying your home's past. It will then proceed to the New Albany Public Library to research your own property. Free but registration is required. Limited to 20 participants. Call Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana for reservations at 812/284-4534.

May 9

Bedford: Historic Preservation Workshops for Real Estate Professionals sponsored by Bedford Revitalization, Inc. The Indiana Professional Licensing Agency has approved for Realtors ® two hours of continuing education credit for "Introduction to Historic Preservation" and 2 hours for "Architecture in Indiana"

"Introduction to Historic Preservation" provides participants with an understanding of the historic preservation process and insight into popular misconceptions. Topics include: National Register of Historic Places, locally designated historic districts, tax credit opportunities, easements and protective covenants, and where to go for help.

"Indiana Architectural Styles" focuses on buildings in Indiana from log homes to the present. Participants learn the historical precedents for each style and helpful hints to identify each style.

Sessions will be from 10:00am-12:00pm and 1:00pm-3:00pm at the Otis Park Bathhouse, Highway 50, Bedford. Cost is $25 per class to receive CEUs and $15 per class to the public. Limited to 50 participants in each session. Reservations required by calling Penny May at 812/279-6171 before May 1.

May 10

Evansville: Preservation Alliance of Evansville and the City of Evansville are holding the 31st annual Historic Preservation Awards Banquet. It will begin at 6:30pm at Trinity Methodist Church (216 S.E. 3rd St) with dinner from Madeleine's Restaurant and Catering. The cost for dinner is $24.00 per person and reservations are necessary. To make reservations, contact the Department of Metropolitan Development at 812, 436-7823.

Following dinner J. Marshall Davis, Executive Director of the Galveston, Texas Historical Foundation will be the keynote speaker. Mr. Davis' presentation "Timing, Luck, and Hard Work: Building the Preservation Ethic in Galveston, Texas" will begin at 8:15 and is free and open to the public.

May 10

Fort Wayne: Downtown Walking tour: Join ARCH on a Downtown Walking tour of architecture and history. Meet at 10am at the Barr Street Market (corner Barr and Wayne). The tour includes inside visits of the historic Lincoln Tower and Allen County Courthouse, as well as the historic Landing District, Canal House and the Arts United Center. Cost is $5 adults, $2 for children under 18. Reservations not necessary, but welcome. Parking available for 50 cents at parking meters. Call 260-426-5117 for reservations or more information.

May 10

Indianapolis: "Preservation Roadshow" Come visit the staff of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology (DHPA) at the historic City Market (200 block of East Market St.). The Farmers' Market takes place every Wednesday (May-October) from 10am-1:30pm. Stop by the DHPA booth, ask questions, and learn about historic preservation. Free

May 11

Evansville: Lincolnshire Historic District Tour. Tour begins in front of St. Benedict Cathedral, 1312 Lincoln Ave. This is Evansville's first comprehensive development. All but one house here was designed and built by the firm of Anderson and Veatch between 1923 and 1949. Some of Evansville's finest Georgian and Tudor Revival homes are found here. Guides: Michelle Crowley and Dennis M. Au. Free

May 11

Indianapolis: The DHPA is hosting a tour of the Interim Library (Old City Hall) at 202 N. Alabama St. Meet outside on N. Alabama St. at 12:00 for the tour led by DHPA architectural historian Paul Diebold. The tour will go up to the 5th floor courtroom, an area not normally open to the public. Contact Amy Walker at 317/ 232-1646 for more information. Free

May 13Bloomington:

The Hinkle-Garton Farmstead Museum and Historic Site will be open regularly for the first time on Saturdays from 1-4 p.m. beginning in May. During Preservation Month a silent auction will be held, as well as special exhibits and activities. The site is located at 2920 E. 10th Street, just east of the Hwy. 46 bypass and 10th Street intersection. For more information about this 1892 farmstead, visit www.bloomingtonrestorations.org or contact Danielle Bachant-Bell, Programs Assistant, at programs@bloomingtonrestorations.org or (812) 336-0909.

May 13

Dublin: Historic Landmarks' Eastern Regional Office, working in conjunction with the Indiana National Road Association, will be sponsoring a window restoration workshop in Dublin. Ron Zmyslo will demonstrate effective and appropriate techniques in restoring historic windows. Following the workshop, there will be a tour of the Huddleston Farmhouse Museum, located only 1 mile east of Dublin. Lunch will be provided. The workshop will begin at 10:00am, meet On National Road, between the fire station and Town Hall. Cost is $10 per person. Contact Historic Landmarks Foundation at 765/ 478-3172.

May 13

Evansville: Riverside North Tour departs from Reitz Home, at the corner of S.E. First and Chestnut Streets. This walk covers the heart of the Riverside National Register Historic District. The most prominent citizens of Evansville lived here in the 19th and early 20th centuries. Their homes reflect the wealth and style of those times. Guides: Pam Guthrie and Robin Church. Free

May 13

Fort Wayne: South Side Farmers Market, 3300 Warsaw Street, Fort Wayne. The market is open for the season. Visit this c. 1926 Farmers Market, listed as a Fort Wayne Local Historic District, and enjoy wood-stoves, old fashioned charm, and early season produce, annual flowers, perennials and more. Collectibles and flea market finds in the south wing. Open from 7am to 1pm. Directions: Lafayette Street to Oxford, turn right (east) one block to Warsaw (traffic light), then left (north) one block to the market.

May 13

Lafayette: Children's Community Quilt Project 2:00pm-4:00pm. Presented by the Tippecanoe County Historical Association, the Wabash Valley Trust for Historic Preservation and the Old Tippecanoe Quilt Guild. Children are invited to participate in a community quilt project that will engage their creativity while teaching them to recognize and identify elements of historic architecture. After a short walking tour, participants will return to TAF to create a quilt square representing their own home. (Remember to bring a photo of your house to help as you create your square.) Members of the Old Tippecanoe Quilt Guild will then sew the squares together to form a Children's Community Quilt. Contact Amy Fehrenbacher at 765/ 420-0268 or Alice Carver-Kubik at 765/ 476-8411, ext. 208 for more information. Free

May 13

Harrison County: Restoration of Cemetery Markers: Hands-On Workshop at Kaylor Cemetery. First in a series of three workshops at three different Harrison County cemeteries. Participants learn the process for restoring historic grave markers and caring for historic gravesites. 9:00am-4:00pm but participants select the amount of time they want to spend learning and practicing what they learn.

· Kaylor Cemetery, Morgan Township. Drive north on State Road 135 toward Palmyra, 2.5 miles from the New Salisbury traffic light. You pass Whiskey Run Road, Flatbush Lane, and Shady Lane. The cemetery is about 300 feet past Shady Lane. Watch for direction signs and parking signs. For more information, call Harrison County Convention and Visitors Bureau at 888/738-2137. Free

May 13

Vevay: Trolley tour of historic sites in Vevay led by Tonya Krall. Tour begins at 10:00am from the "Life on the Ohio" River History Museum (208 E. Market St.). The Museum will be open from 10:00am-4:00pm and admission will be free. Contact the Switzerland County Historical Society at 812/ 427-3560 for more information. Free

May 14

Evansville: Historic West Franklin Street Walking Tour departs from the front of the West Branch Library at 2000 West Franklin Street. This is the old German side of town. Tour features both the West Franklin Street business district as well as the fine residential dwellings on Wabash Avenue of the Flags. Guide: Fred Mulfinger. Free

May 16

New Albany: Progressive Pizza and Preservation: Paint Your Historic House Beautiful. Sponsored by Porter Paints come learn the basic guidelines for selecting the appropriate colors for historic buildings. Bonus tips from the presenter on interior and exterior finishes and techniques to give you professional results. Presenter: Brenda Summers, Interior Designer, Porter Paints. 6:15pm-8:30pm at Rich O's Public House, 3312 Plaza Drive, New Albany. Limited to 30 participants and reservations are required by calling Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana at 812/284-4534. Free

May 17

Fort Wayne: Downtown Walking tour: Join ARCH on a Downtown Walking tour of architecture and history. Meet at 10am at the Barr Street Market (corner Barr and Wayne). The tour includes inside visits of the historic Lincoln Tower and Allen County Courthouse, as well as the historic Landing District, Canal House and the Arts United Center. Cost is $5 adults, $2 for children under 18. Reservations not necessary, but welcome. Parking available for 50 cents at parking meters. Call 260-426-5117 for reservations or more information.

May 17

Fort Wayne: ARCHIE Awards Ceremony and Announcement of the 2006 Most Endangered Structures List. ARCH Annual meeting, 5:30-7:00pm, Historic Lincoln Tower Lobby, 116 East Berry Street. Celebrate a year of historic preservation activities in the lobby of the magnificent art deco Lincoln Tower, with light refreshments, and more. Free. 260-426-5117.

May 17

Indianapolis: "Preservation Roadshow" Come visit the staff of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology (DHPA) at the historic City Market (200 block of East Market St.). The Farmers' Market takes place every Wednesday (May-October) from 10am-1:30pm. Stop by the DHPA booth, ask questions, and learn about historic preservation. Free

May 17

New Albany: Preservation Conversation: Filling Holes in New Albany's Downtown Historic Fabric. Join Ted Fulmore, New Albany Historic Preservation Commission; John Miller, Community Housing Development Organization; Mark Dollase, Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana as they focus on the implications and strategies for filling the gaps in downtown's streetscapes. 7:00pm-8:30pm at Destinations Booksellers, 604 E. Spring Street, New Albany. Contact Randy Smith at 812/ 944-5116 for more information. Free

May 18

Indianapolis: The DHPA is hosting a tour of portions of Union Station at 300 South Meridian Street. Meet at the offices of architecture firm A2SO4 (Suite 250) at 12:00 for the tour. Contact Amy Walker at 317/ 232-1646 for more information. Free

May 19

Fort Wayne: Planning and Design for Healthy Communities Symposium. Examine the history of community planning, and examine the benefits of green architecture and design and sustainable development. Keynote by Parris Glendening, president of Smart Growth Leadership Council, former governor of Maryland. Other speakers and topics include: The Impact of Suburban Growth in America by James Segedy, Ph.D., FAICP, AIA, BSU, Green Architecture and Sustainable Design, by Robert Koester, AIA LEED AP, BSU, and others. Sponsored by IPFW, ARCH, Friends of the Parks of Allen County, AIA Fort Wayne Chapter, Indiana Chapter ASLA, and more. $100 for professionals, $45 for students. Includes lunch. Register online at learn.ipfw.edu.

May 20

Bloomington:

The Hinkle-Garton Farmstead Museum and Historic Site will be open regularly for the first time on Saturdays from 1-4 p.m. beginning in May. During Preservation Month a silent auction will be held, as well as special exhibits and activities. The site is located at 2920 E. 10th Street, just east of the Hwy. 46 bypass and 10th Street intersection. For more information about this 1892 farmstead, visit www.bloomingtonrestorations.org or contact Danielle Bachant-Bell, Programs Assistant, at programs@bloomingtonrestorations.org or (812) 336-0909.

May 20

Fort Wayne: South Side Farmers Market, 3300 Warsaw Street, Fort Wayne. The market is open for the season. Visit this c. 1926 Farmers Market, listed as a Fort Wayne Local Historic District, and enjoy wood-stoves, old fashioned charm, and early season produce, annual flowers, perennials and more. Collectibles and flea market finds in the south wing. Open from 7am to 1pm. Directions: Lafayette Street to Oxford, turn right (east) one block to Warsaw (traffic light), then left (north) one block to the market.

May 20

Fort Wayne: Grand Unveiling at the McCulloch-Weatherhogg House. 5-9pm. Help ARCH celebrate the rescue and restoration of the biggest preservation challenge ever for Fort Wayne. The McCulloch-Weatherhogg House is ready to re-enter society, and we invite you to participate in her grand unveiling. The party will feature fine food and refreshments and tours of this special building. Your sponsorship for this fundraising event will allow ARCH to raise the necessary funds for our ongoing restoration projects, as well as our education program and general operating expenses.

- Tours of the McCulloch-Weatherhogg House and Carriage House
- Hors d' oeuvres and cocktails
- Live music

And a sneak peak at the Alexander T. Rankin House, ARCH's newest project. Tickets $40 person, $75 per couple. Call ARCH at 260-426-5117 for more information.

May 20

Harrison County: Restoration of Cemetery Markers: Hands-On Workshop at Pitman Cemetery. Second in a series of three workshops at three different Harrison County cemeteries. Participants learn the process for restoring historic grave markers and caring for historic gravesites. 9:00am-4:00pm but participants select the amount of time they want to spend learning and practicing what they learn. 9:00am-4:00pm but participants select the amount of time they want to spend learning and practicing what they learn.

· Pitman Cemetery, Spencer Township. On Highway 62, drive 5 miles west from the intersection of State roads 135 and 62 to Harrison Spring Road. Turn right onto Harrison Spring and drive 2 miles to the T at Moberly Road. Turn right onto Moberly Road. The cemetery is about 300 feet on your right. Watch for direction signs and parking signs. For more information, call Harrison County Convention and Visitors Bureau at 888/738-2137. Free

May 20

Indianapolis: Take an architectural trip through Indianapolis history during "This Old House: Architectural Styles of the Historic Old Northside" - a special program and tour celebrating National Historic Preservation Month. Gather at the Morris-Butler House museum for a brief workshop presented by experts from Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana on the history and hallmarks of Indiana's architectural heritage. Then tour the Morris-Butler House and head outside to see real-life examples on a walking tour highlighting the Old Northside, one of the city's premiere historic neighborhoods. Begins at 9:30 a.m. with danishes and coffee at the Morris-Butler House museum, 1204 North Park, and ends at 12:00 p.m. Cost is $17 per person ($15 per Historic Landmarks Member). Call 317/ 639-4534 for information.

May 20

Lafayette: Creative Solutions to Researching Your Historic Building (1:00pm-3:00pm). Presented by the Tippecanoe County Historical Association and the Wabash Valley Trust for Historic Preservation. In this workshop, participants will learn to use the Sanborn Maps to find the location of specific building and how to do a reverse deed search. They will discover creative tips and solutions to research problems and identify the best ways to find and use photographs of an historic building or neighborhood. Contact Amy Fehrenbacher at 765/ 420-0268 or Alice Carver-Kubik at 765/ 476-8411, ext. 208 for more information. Free

May 20

New Albany: Downtown Walking Tour: History, Availability, Possibility. Sponsored by Develop New Albany this tour is designed for interested buyers, realtors, and historians, the in-depth tour includes buildings' history, measurements, possible uses, and available economic incentives. Tour leaders include Nick Cortolillo, Urban Enterprise Association; Paul Wheatley, City of New Albany; Laura Renwick, Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana; Ted Fulmore, New Albany Historic Preservation Commission, David Barksdale, Floyd County Historian, Betty Jo Tucker, Realtor, Semonin. 11:00am-12:30pm. Tour begins at Louisville Stained Glass Company, corner Pearl and Market streets in the historic Briggs Block, New Albany. Call 812/ 941-0018 for more information. Free

May 20

Corydon: History, Heritage, and Hammers: A One-day Volunteer Fix up of the Carter House, the home of Civil War veteran Leonard Carter and his family. Volunteers are invited to assist with scraping exterior paint, patching interior walls and floors, and fixing minor flaws around the house that has been stabilized. 10:00am-4:00pm. Volunteers will enjoy a free lunch courtesy of event sponsor Leora Brown School, Inc. Please contact Leora Brown School at 812/ 738-3376 to volunteer. Free.

Driving directions: I-64 West to exit 105. At the third traffic light after the exit, turn left onto Federal Drive. Drive to Walnut Street and turn left. Drive 2 blocks to Maple Street and turn left onto High Street. Drive one block to Hill Street. The Carter House is on the right. You'll see a sign in front of the house. Park across Hill Street at the Leora Brown School, 400 Summit Street, Corydon, Indiana.

May 20

Rising Sun: "Preservation 101" Frank Hurdis, from the Indiana Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology, will be speaking about preservation issues, specifically the pending National Register of Historic Places Historic District for Rising Sun. The talk will begin at 1:00pm and will be at the Ohio County Historical Society and Museum (212 S. Walnut St., Rising Sun). Call 812/ 438-4915 for more information. Free with admission to museum.

May 20

South Bend: "Restore Michiana: A Conference and Old House Fair Presenting Practical Preservation Solutions". This event is being sponsored by Indiana Alliance of Historic District Commissions, Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana, and Historic Preservation Commission of South Bend & St. Joseph County. It begins at 8:00am and continues until 5:00pm and will be held at the Century Center, 120 S. St. Joseph St.

South Bend. Call Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana at 574-232-4534 for more information.

May 20

Vevay: Come visit the developing Living History/Agriculture Museum (2 miles west of Vevay on SR 56) between 10:00am-2:00pm. There will be tours of the site and stonewall restoration specialists. Contact the Switzerland County Historical Society at 812/ 427-3560 for information. Free

May 21

Rising Sun: "Captain Charlie" will lead you on a wonderful exploration of the history of Rising Sun and the Ohio River. Learn why the first settlers choose to live here, who established a speed record on the Ohio River in 1926, who wrote the first melodrama, and many more Rising Sun personalities and facts. Discover the significance the river has played in the development of Rising Sun.

The tour (wear comfortable shoes) will last approximately one and a half hours. The cost is $5.00 a person and $2.00 for those 4-12 and under four are free. This also includes admission to the museum. Tour starts inside the Ohio County Historical Society and Museum (212 S. Walnut St). Call 812/ 438-4915 for details.

May 22

Elkhart: On Monday, May 22 at 4:00 p.m., Ruthmere, Elkhart's elegant 1910 Beaux Arts mansion, will celebrate Preservation Month with a lecture entitled, "A Variety of Architectural Styles Popular in 1910" by noted architect and scholar Thomas Gordon Smith. Mr. Smith is the former chair of the Department of Architecture, University of Notre Dame. Ruthmere is located at 302 E. Beardsley Ave. Elkhart, IN 46514. Telephone: (574) 264-0330. Website: www.ruthmere.org. Free

May 23

Fort Wayne: Hat Luncheon, Friends of the Parks of Allen County: Your choice of headgear becomes part of the entertainment at the annual Hat Luncheon, held to raise funds for historic preservation projects in the Fort Wayne City Parks. This year, the event will be held from 11:30 to 1:00 PM at the Conklin Pavilion in Shoaff Park. Guest Speaker Catherine Nagel, Executive Director of the City Parks Alliance and National Association for Olmstead Parks. Cost is $50 per person. www.yeaparks.org for more information.

May 23

New Albany: Progressive Pizza and Preservation: Hands-on Exterior Painting of Historic Buildings. Sponsored by William Whitaker Painting, come learn about the tools and preparation techniques for painting your historic building. You practice with a variety of paint stripping tools including the Speedheater Infrared Paint Remover. Meet at the Carnegie Center for Art and History (201 East Spring Street) for pizza and a brief introduction. Then, go to the home of Ted Fulmore, 838 Cedar Bough Place to practice. Presenters: Ron Zmyslo, Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana; Bill Whitaker, William Whitaker Painting. The workshop takes place from 6:15pm-8:30pm and is limited to 35 participants. Reservations are required, call Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana at 812/ 284-4534. Free

May 24

Fort Wayne: Downtown Walking tour: Join ARCH on a Downtown Walking tour of architecture and history. Meet at 10am at the Barr Street Market (corner Barr and Wayne). The tour includes inside visits of the historic Lincoln Tower and Allen County Courthouse, as well as the historic Landing District, Canal House and the Arts United Center. Cost is $5 adults, $2 for children under 18. Reservations not necessary, but welcome. Parking available for 50 cents at parking meters. Call 260-426-5117 for reservations or more information.

May 24

Indianapolis: "Preservation Roadshow" Come visit the staff of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology (DHPA) at the historic City Market (200 block of East Market St.). The Farmers' Market takes place every Wednesday (May-October) from 10am-1:30pm. Stop by the DHPA booth, ask questions, and learn about historic preservation. Free

May 25

Indianapolis: The DHPA is hosting two tours of Monument Circle. The first tour will start at 11:30 and the second one will begin at 12:15. Meet on the west side of the Monument, outside the entrance to the Civil War Museum. Contact Amy Walker at 317/232-1646 for more information. Free

May 25

Indianapolis: An outdoor sculpture walking tour will be conducted by local historian Glory-June Greiff. The tour will depart from the north side of the Indiana War Memorial at 6:00pm and last until 7:30pm while covering various sculptures in downtown Indianapolis. Wear comfy shoes for the approximately 1 ½ mile walk. Free

May 27

Bloomington:

The Hinkle-Garton Farmstead Museum and Historic Site will be open regularly for the first time on Saturdays from 1-4 p.m. beginning in May. During Preservation Month a silent auction will be held, as well as special exhibits and activities. The site is located at 2920 E. 10th Street, just east of the Hwy. 46 bypass and 10th Street intersection. For more information about this 1892 farmstead, visit www.bloomingtonrestorations.org or contact Danielle Bachant-Bell, Programs Assistant, at programs@bloomingtonrestorations.org or (812) 336-0909.

May 27

Fort Wayne: South Side Farmers Market, 3300 Warsaw Street, Fort Wayne. The market is open for the season. Visit this c. 1926 Farmers Market, listed as a Fort Wayne Local Historic District, and enjoy wood-stoves, old fashioned charm, and early season produce, annual flowers, perennials and more. Collectibles and flea market finds in the south wing. Open from 7am to 1pm. Directions: Lafayette Street to Oxford, turn right (east) one block to Warsaw (traffic light), then left (north) one block to the market.

May 27

New Albany: Scribner House, the oldest surviving building of any kind in New Albany, was built in 1814 by Joel Scribner. Joel Scribner, one of the city's founders, built this first frame house in the brand new river town. Admission will be free from 11:30am-1:30pm.

May 27

New Albany: Mansion Row Walking Tour, New Albany. Hear "live stories" from "Women of Main Street." · Meet at Scribner House, corner of State and Main streets, New Albany for the tour led by Dave Condra of the Floyd County Historical Society. Tour will last from 1:00pm-3:00pm.

May 27

Harrison County: Restoration of Cemetery Markers: Hands-On Workshop at Old Mt Zion Cemetery - the third in a series of three workshops at three different Harrison County cemeteries. Participants learn the process for restoring historic grave markers and caring for historic gravesites. 9:00am-4:00pm but participants select the amount of time they want to spend learning and practicing what they learn. 9:00am-4:00pm but participants select the amount of time they want to spend learning and practicing what they learn. For more information call the Harrison County Convention and Visitors Bureau at 888/ 738-2137. Free

· From the intersection of State roads 135 and 62, drive 11.8 miles south on State Road 135. You will pass Squire Boone Road and Mauckport Fireworks, a large red building at the intersection of State Road 135 and Crossroads Drive. At Crossroads Drive, watch for signs that direct you to Old Mt Zion. Coming from Kentucky, drive 2.1 miles north from the Indiana side of the bridge to Old Mt Zion Cemetery.

May 27

Vevay: The Switzerland County Public Library will be hosting a presentation by Jerry Wallin at 10:00am. Mr. Wallin will be talking about how to date a building based on the nails used in its construction. Contact the Switzerland County Historical Society at 812/ 427-3560 for information. Free

May 28Harrison County:

Restoration of Cemetery Markers: Knowledge Center at Old Mt Zion Cemetery. On this weekend of Memorial Day, visit Old Mt Zion and watch for the Knowledge Center set up at a gravesite. Visitors may ask questions about restoring markers and learn so many details. Karl Schettler, member of the Harrison County Restoration Team, conducts the casual forum between 1 PM and 5 PM. Anyone interested in historic cemetery markers will enjoy the open conversation about this intriguing topic. Contact the Harrison County Convention and Visitors Bureau at 888/ 738-2137 for more information. Free

· From the intersection of State roads 135 and 62, drive 11.8 miles south on State Road 135. You will pass Squire Boone Road and Mauckport Fireworks, a large red building at the intersection of State Road 135 and Crossroads Drive. At Crossroads Drive, watch for signs that direct you to Old Mt Zion. Coming from Kentucky, drive 2.1 miles north from the Indiana side of the bridge to Old Mt Zion Cemetery.

May 29

Harrison County: Restoration of Cemetery Markers: Knowledge Center at Old Mt Zion Cemetery. On this weekend of Memorial Day, visit Old Mt Zion and watch for the Knowledge Center set up at a gravesite. Visitors may ask questions about restoring markers and learn so many details. Karl Schettler, member of the Harrison County Restoration Team, conducts the casual forum between 9 AM and 4 PM. Anyone interested in historic cemetery markers will enjoy the open conversation about this intriguing topic. Contact the Harrison County Convention and Visitors Bureau at 888/

738-2137 for more information. Free

· From the intersection of State roads 135 and 62, drive 11.8 miles south on State Road 135. You will pass Squire Boone Road and Mauckport Fireworks, a large red building at the intersection of State Road 135 and Crossroads Drive. At Crossroads Drive, watch for signs that direct you to Old Mt Zion. Coming from Kentucky, drive 2.1 miles north from the Indiana side of the bridge to Old Mt Zion Cemetery.

May 30

New Albany: Progressive Pizza and Preservation: Hands-on Repair of Historic Windows Learn to care and repair historic windows. The workshop, sponsored by the New Albany Historic Preservation Commission, begins at the Carnegie Center (201 E. Spring Street) with an introduction to the topic. Then attendees will go to the home of Ted Fulmore, 838 Cedar Bough Place for practice with removing sashes, removing old glazing and glazing application techniques, repairing sash weights and ropes, and making minor window repairs. Presenters: Ted Fulmore, Owner, 838 Cedar Bough Place and Ron Zmyslo, Director of Restoration Services, Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana, Bill Whitaker, Owner, William Whitaker Painting. 6:15pm-8:30pm. Limited to 35 participants. Reservations are required, call Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana at 812/ 284-4534. Free

May 31

Clarksville: Jeffersonville Main Street is sponsoring "Is Wal-mart Good for America" This film offers two contrasting images: one of empty storefronts in Circleville, Ohio, where the local TV manufacturing plant has closed down; the other a sea of high-rises in the southern China boomtown of Shenzhen. What are the connections between the situations in Circleville, Ohio, and Shenzhen, China? For Wal-Mart, China has become the cheapest, most reliable production platform in the world, the source of as much as $25 billion in annual imports, which helps the company deliver low prices to 100 million customers a week. View the film and offer your own opinions during the discussion following the viewing of Wal-mart's contribution to America. 6:00pm -8:00pm at Falls of the Ohio State Park, 201 West Riverside Drive, Clarksville. Free

May 31

Fort Wayne: Downtown Walking tour: Join ARCH on a Downtown Walking tour of architecture and history. Meet at 10am at the Barr Street Market (corner Barr and Wayne). The tour includes inside visits of the historic Lincoln Tower and Allen County Courthouse, as well as the historic Landing District, Canal House and the Arts United Center. Cost is $5 adults, $2 for children under 18. Reservations not necessary, but welcome. Parking available for 50 cents at parking meters. Call 260-426-5117 for reservations or more information.

May 31

Indianapolis: "Preservation Roadshow" Come visit the staff of the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology (DHPA) at the historic City Market (200 block of East Market St.). The Farmers' Market takes place every Wednesday (May-October) from 10am-1:30pm. Stop by the DHPA booth, ask questions, and learn about historic preservation. Free

June 3

New Albany: Grassroots Preservation Roundup: Idea Exchange. This informal annual gathering allows local preservationists, officials, historians, and others to gather and network. In the morning, Indiana's staff from the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology share information on state programs that can benefit local preservation efforts. Participants share their local preservation success stories and challenges. The afternoon features a tour of preservation projects in New Albany.

- 9:00am-4:00pm

- Division Street School, 1803 Conservative Street, New Albany.

- Sponsors: Indiana Department of Natural Resources, Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology, and the New Albany Historic Preservation Commission.

- Free and open to the public. Registration required by contacting the DHPA -- 317/232-1646.